Backups, pacing, and what to cut first

The printable should never be more authoritative than the live guide; use current checks for anything time-sensitive.

Backup choices

- [] Kingsland - quick state-line downtown pause.
- [] Woodbine - Satilla River reset.
- [] Darien - compact waterfront pause.
- [] Midway - focused Highway 17 history stop.

Pacing posture

Direct-but-still-Route-17, fuller coast day, or first leg of a longer northbound trip.

Route distinction

Do not treat Jacksonville, Brunswick, and Savannah as interchangeable. Their different roles are what make the trip work.

If the day runs long

Cut small-place pauses first. Keep Brunswick as the one middle if needed, and protect Savannah arrival time.
